New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, October 14 .- The ques tion of prices of stocks to-day continued on a diminishing volume of business, but expanding in a buoyant unshoot in the last hour.

Previous liquidation evidently had served to relieve the local money market so far that room was left for the recovery in prices, United States Steel especially was vigorously strong, and the aggressive manner in which

and the aggressive manner in which it was absorbed and bid, has a reassuring effect on sentiment towards the whole market. The strength of Union Pacific effectively supplemented that of United States Steel as a sustaining inflence.

The announcement of the absorption of the control of the Missouri, Kaisas and Texas in the interest of the Hawley and Rock Island parties, opened up a substantial intention of the ambitious railroad project of the former interest, and suggested some realignment of the railroad affiliations. Western Union enjoyed the benefit of the good annual report. Reports of renewed active demand for pigiron were a factor in the rise in United States Steel.

Bonds were heavy. Total sales, par ill.e. $2,652,000. United States bonds were unchanged

Total sales for the day were 991,600 shares of stocks.

Talkative Diplomat Is Probing Deeper Into Mysteries of Spiritualism.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 14.—
Dr. Wu Ting Fang, the learned and popular Chinaman who is about to retire from the post of minister of the China to the United States, pursued still further last night his personal investigation into the esoteric mysteries of spiritism as demonstrated by Washington spiritualists. His first experience occurred last Sunday night at a public meeting, where anonymous Chinese spirits were described to Dr. Wu by a "trance medium" as hovering in the distinguished diplomat's immediate vicinity. Dr. Wu exhibited great interest. Last night he went again, this time to a smaller seance at a private house. Dr. Wu refused last night to discuss his experience or impressions, and even showed solicitude lest his presence at the seance should be the subject of newspaper. the private meetings of the "Temple League of Spiritualists." Suddenly the medium made a most profound salaam before Dr. Wu, and "Minnie" informed him that his mother was there and wished to give him a message. "Ask her to speak to me," message, "As said Dr. Wu. said Dr. Wu. At that request the medium uttered, as if with great dif-ficulty, a sentence in the Chinese lan-guage or as near to it as it might be possible for an Indian girl, able to speak only the most broken long-lish, to repeat to an American that difficult foreign tongue. This in turn passing from the lips of another woman would necessarily be somewhat impertect, but Dr. Wu apparently understood portions of the message repeated to him, and answered in Chinese. The dist sentence was in the nature of a salutation, and in reply the statesman questioned the "spirit" in Chinese, receiving an answer which seemed undoubtedly to be in Chinese, and the conversation continued five minutes.

Through the medium, the Indian "control" occasionally remarked that Dr. Wu did not fully understand what the medium was trying to say to him, owing to the third-hand manner, so to speak, in which the Chinese was reaching him. During the conveyance of the message purporting to come from Dr. Wu's mother, the medium stood close to the diplomat, at times holding his hand and patting him on the shoulder. Finally she knelt in front of him, continuing talking in that position a couple of minutes.

At the conclusion of this conversation the Indian told what she foresaw

Chinese minister. First of all, she saw "much fighting" in the far-away country from which he came. His native land was preparing, she said, for a great struggle. It was building great ships of war. Dr. Wu would be vitality interested in this terrible conflict and would hold an office of great importance.

Shortly after this the medium said
